

School Communities Working Together

All NSW Schools must immediately report all concerns of anti-social and extremist behaviour to the School Safety & Response Hotline.

The hotline is available 24/7 and is staffed by trained incident support officers, including officers seconded from the NSW Police Force. The Department of Education manages the hotline and takes reports of anti-social and extremist behaviour from all NSW schools.

NSW non-government schools

1300 495 051

If you believe that you, a student or staff member is in danger call 000 (triple zero) immediately.